CMA Sells Contracting Division To Delta Group

CMA Corporation Limited (ASX: CMV) today announced it has sold its CMA Contracting division to the Delta Group for undisclosed terms.

As part of this sales agreement, CMA has also entered into a scrap supply contract with Delta.

CMA Contracting operations include plant decommissioning, industrial demolition and site clearance as well as remediation, asbestos removal, decontamination and redevelopment of sites, salvage, minerals and materials recycling and consulting.

The Delta Group was established in 1974 and is an industry leader in small, large and strategic demolition projects. With a head office in Port Melbourne, the Delta Group operates Australia wide and its activities include civil works, excavation, hard and soft landscaping, commercial bin hire and heavy equipment hire. The Delta Group also leads the market in its innovative recycling and waste management program including an award winning joint venture with Boral in concrete recycling.

CMA Chief Executive Craig Tuhoro said the agreement with Delta Group has been undertaken as part of CMA's ongoing restructuring programme.

CMA remains in voluntary suspension and is continuing its capital structure review, working with advisors to consider the restructure of both debt and equity.
